Amidst this vibrant and dangerous world, two young women find themselves at a crossroads. Lillian is a beautiful and headstrong debutante who is engaged to the wealthy and powerful Edward. But her heart belongs to Jacques, a penniless musician who is everything that Edward is not.

Sophie is a poor and orphaned girl who works as a waitress at a local speakeasy. She dreams of a better life, but she knows that her chances are slim. Then she meets Jack, a charming and mysterious bootlegger who offers her a way out.

As the two women's lives become increasingly intertwined, they must make choices that will shape their destinies forever. Lillian must decide between the safety and security of Edward and the passion and excitement of Jacques. Sophie must decide between the allure of Jack's dangerous world and the possibility of a better life.

Set against the backdrop of Prohibition-era New Orleans, Moonlight in the Morning is a tale of love, betrayal, and redemption. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
