Resistance Refugees And Love In The Time Of Hitler is the extraordinary story of these brave individuals. It is a story of courage, resilience, and love.

The book follows the lives of three individuals: Liselotte Herrmann, a German-Jewish woman who joined the Resistance; Kurt Grossmann, a German-Jewish refugee who fought in the Spanish Civil War; and Marta

Hillers, a German-born Christian woman who helped to rescue Jewish children.

Liselotte Herrmann was a young woman when the Nazis came to power. She was forced to flee her home and went into hiding. She joined the Resistance and worked as a courier, delivering messages and supplies to Resistance fighters. She was arrested by the Gestapo in 1944 and was executed in 1945.

Kurt Grossmann was a young man when he fled Germany in 1933. He went to Spain and fought in the Spanish Civil War. After the war, he was interned in a French concentration camp. He was eventually released and went to the United States, where he became a successful businessman.

Marta Hillers was a young woman when she met Liselotte Herrmann. She was a Christian, but she was opposed to the Nazi regime. She helped Liselotte to find hiding places and to escape from Germany. She also helped to rescue Jewish children from orphanages and concentration camps.

Resistance Refugees And Love In The Time Of Hitler is a powerful and moving story of courage, resilience, and love. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
