A Personal Story of Poverty and Opportunity

J.D. Vance grew up in Middletown, Ohio, a Rust Belt town that has been hit hard by economic decline. His family struggled to make ends meet, and Vance himself often went hungry. But despite the challenges he faced, Vance never gave up on his dream of a better life. He worked hard in school and eventually earned a scholarship to Yale Law School. After graduating from Yale, Vance returned to Middletown and started a non-profit organization dedicated to helping other families overcome poverty.
